FATHER OF EL PASOANS
DIES IN CALIFORNIA
Roswell, N. M., March 2.—A. B. Liles, one of the pioneers and old timers of the Pecos Valley, died at Wilmington, Cal., aged 80 years. He left Roswell in 1886, after having lived here for 15 years. He was in the stock business and was well known all over the Pecos river country.

He is survived by the following children: Mrs. David Howell, of Roswell; Dave Liles, of El Paso; Mrs. Annie Miller, of El Paso; J. A. Liles, of Douglas; A. T. and Mrs. Peter Cron, residing near Douglas.

ROSWELL TO HAVE RACES.
Roswell, N. M., March 2.—Preparations are being made for the horse racing and goat roping exhibitions that will take place at the fair grounds Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Arrangements are being made to entertain large crowds from up and down the valley.

POLICE JUDGE IS FOR PROHIBITIONRoswell People Hold Mass Meetings in Campaign Against Saloons.

Roswell, N. M., March 2.—Anti-saloon public meetings were held lately and many strong arguments were advanced for the complete abolishment of licensed saloons in Roswell.

At the First Presbyterian church, Rev. H. Van Valkenburg, of the First Methodist Episcopal church; Dr. D. F. Thomas and Justice of the peace and police judge Andrew J. Welter made addresses in behalf of prohibition. Judge Welter gave facts from his official record showing that he had over 1200 cases before him caused by liquor.

Strong resolutions were passed against the saloon, and the pulse of the meeting was that it was not a political, but a moral issue only, that now confronts the citizens of Roswell.

Resolutions have been passed by the Senior Endeavor society of the Christian church and the Young People's society of the First Presbyterian church against the saloon.

TALKS IN COURT; HELD FOR CONTEMPTM. McGinty Placed Under $100 Bond—To Be Given Hearing Thursday.

"That is an outrage" is the remark M. McGinty is said to have made in police court Tuesday afternoon when Judge W. P. Robinson fined Mr. Black $5 on a charge of assaulting Catalina Jara, a Mexican woman, by pushing her down the stairs of a rooming house on San Antonio street.

Assistant city attorney Volney M. Brown heard the remark and jumped to his feet, demanding that the man be fined for contempt of court, so the judge placed him under a $100 bond and will hear the case Thursday.

This morning there was but one prisoner fined in police court, Rafael Lujan, who was fined $5 on the charge of being drunk and disturbing the peace. There will be no session of police court this evening as this is independence day.

EXPECT MITCHIN HERE THURSDAYMan Charged With Murder to Undergo Medical Examination.

"I expect that J. E. Mitchin will arrive in El Paso tomorrow morning," said his attorney, R. V. Bowden, today. "The trial will not come up at this time, but he will undergo a medical examination by a board to be selected by both sides in order to show that his physical condition would not warrant his going to trial at this time of court and that we may have the bond for 'future set aside.'"

Mitchin who was formerly editor of the Evening News in this city, but is now a resident of De Soto, Mo., is charged with the murder of Monroe McClurg Harrell.

AMUSEMENTS.

"SIS HOPKINS."
"Sis Hopkins," that delightful rural play of such heart interest that it has become one of the classics of the American stage, will be the attraction at the El Paso theater Thursday, March 3. Miss Rose Melville, who originated the character of "sis," and played it continuously since the play has been on the stage, will, of course, be seen in the leading role. The company which Miss Rose Melville's manager, J. R. Stirling, has engaged for this season is the best of this delightful actress has ever had supporting her, it is claimed. Seats are now on sale at the Crawford theater. Prices $1.00, 75c and 50c.

"EAST LYNNE."
No better pleased audience ever left the Crawford than the one last night after seeing the production of "East Lynne" by the Bailey Stock company. The two vaudeville acts are proving a big feature this week and the prices are 10, 20 and 30c.

SOUVENIRS TONIGHT.
Manager Rich says: "Don't miss the big bill at the Majestic tonight—a great show and china souvenirs for the women. The show is given nightly—7:30, 8:30 and 9:30."

HELD TO GRAND JURY ON BURGLARY CHARGE
(Augustin Rivera was arrested by detective George Harold Tuesday afternoon on a charge of burglarizing the home of Mrs. Gussie Louise Hirschfeld, at 2027 1/2 Commerce street, Bassett addition. This morning he was given a preliminary hearing before Justice E. H. Watson, and bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500.

Harold was just leaving his house after dinner when he heard a woman scream and saw two men running away. He chased Rivera for two blocks and caught him.

According to the testimony given by the woman, Rivera jumped through the window and cut his hands going out. He did not secure anything from the house.

BOARD APPOINTED TO LAY OUT COUNTY ROAD
In order that a jury at view might be appointed to lay out a road through Stewart and Crawford's land adjacent to the Hart's Mill road, county judge Elyar called a special session of the county commissioners Monday and the court was in session 10 minutes.

The following were selected as the jury: Z. T. White, J. A. Happer, J. J. Ormsbee, Chalmers Adams, Royal T. Jackson. An order was also passed permitting owners of El Paso county school lands in Fisher county to pay up their notes with the understanding that they pay the county a three percent bonus, thereby agreeing to pay eight percent interest of five.

Abraham Reyes, a resident of Ysleta, 92 years of age, was awarded a pension of $4 per month, beginning March 1, 1910.

FIREMAN HAS BOTH LEGS CRUSHED OFF
Roswell, N. M., March 2.—Frank R. Miller, 23 years old, a fireman on the New Mexico Eastern railway, had both legs crushed off six inches above the ankle, and suffered other injuries in an accident at South Springs station.

Miller was standing on the back end of the tender putting a chemical compound in the water to prevent the settling of sediment in the flues of the boiler, when he fell between the tender and first car.

O. R. Smith, the head brakeman, saw the accident, but could not stop the train before two cars had passed over him, cutting off both feet. Miller was taken to St. Mary's hospital here for surgical attention.
